RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations will apply to all participants taking part in Annual Mela.

- Each individual or participating group must fill in the Musical Item Entry (MIE) form. Records will be held in our database for future communications and forums.
- Minimum age for participants is 7.
- Performance time is restricted to 10 minutes. Culture team's discretion will apply should time elapse.
- All items should be presentable and to a good standard that will respect SKLPC's values. Items entered can be:
 - *Modern / Traditional instrumental music from around the world.
 - *Singing live English modern / Traditional songs from around the world.
 - *You may combine music and singing together.
- The first 20 items received will be eligible to participate based on the criteria set.
- All participants are expected to dress appropriately. Please avoid clothing which denigrates our organisations and our culture. Midriff must remain covered during performance.
- We request each group OR individual to send us a short video clip of your performance containing ONLY the item being performed by 30th June 2017.
- All participants must abide by the general Health and Safety Rules of the organisation.
- All under 16 participants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- There is no age limit on participants

PLEASE LET US KNOW IF YOU DO NOT WANT US TO EXHIBIT YOUR PHOTOS ON OUR SKLPC WEBSITE, IN WRITING, WITH THE ENTRY FORM.

Please email completed forms by 30th June 2017 for the musical programme to the SKLPC Culture Team. Email at culture@sklpc.com
